GPC-Conference Jerusalem (Israel)

"For Zions sake, I will not keep silent!" (Isaiah 62:1)

Speakers (some still to be confirmed):

Willem Glashouwer (NL), Tomas Sandell (FIN), Markus Ernst (CH), Harald Eckert (GER), Andrew Tucker (NL), Rick Ridings (IL), George Annadorai (SINGAPORE), Benjamin Berger (IL), Pete Stucken (Australia), Drake Kanaabo (Uganda, Africa), Conrado Lumahan (Philippines), etc. as well as members of government and religious leaders from Israel.

"For Zions sake, I will not keep silent!" (Isaiah 62:1) is the Biblical motto of the Global Prayer Day on May 8/9 2015 – as well as the GPC-Conference in Jerusalem, Israel on May 10-13, 2015.

On May 8, 1945 (Russia: May 9) the surrender of Nazi-Germany to the Allied Forces was officially ratified. World War II in Europe came to an end. And most importantly, from a Jewish point of view, the Holocaust was over. Nearly half of the 13 Million Jews living in Europe in 1938 had perished. The rest of them barely escaped with their lives, often under the most traumatic of circumstances.

Now, 70 years later – almost to the day – 3 European Ministries with a special calling to work toward Christian-Jewish reconciliation and cooperation are calling the praying Christian Church worldwide to join us in Jerusalem for a unique prayer conference. In the context of the 100 days of global prayer and in the spirit of representative confession and repentance for our nations as demonstrated in the book of Daniel, Chapter 9, we want to gather in Jerusalem to bless Israel and the Jewish people and to pray for our respective nations to become an ever greater blessing for the nation and the people of Israel.

The prayer focus for our nations is extremely significant in the light of history as well as biblical prophecy:

- History – both ancient and modern – has proven that in times of need for the Jewish people the nations, for the most part, have been more of the problem (Antisemitism), than the solution (Being a blessing to Israel according to Gen. 12:3).
- The pivotal example in modern times is the Conference of Evian (France) in July 1938 where the pressing problem of a vastly growing number of Jewish refugees under the oppression of Hitler in Germany and Austria was discussed. The result: Only 2 of the 30 (mostly western) nations represented opened their hearts and their borders. The Jewish refugees were basically abandoned to their fate.

- Today, Israel is again isolated, terrorized and demonized by antisemitic forces. How are the nations of the world responding? Often in ignorance, with indifference, knowingly turning a blind eye and sometimes even sympathizing with the sworn enemies of Israel. Could the parallels with the situation of the Jews of Germany and Austria in 1938 be any more striking?
- The bible talks about a "valley of decision" (Joel, 3:14) and about the judgment of nations as either "sheep" or "goat" nations at the return of Jesus (Matt. 25:31-33) based on Genesis 12:1-3. The nations which bless Israel will be blessed. The nations which curse Israel will be cursed. The GPC-book "Israel, the Nations and the Valley of Decision" deals with this topic in greater detail (for your free copy, visit: www.100-days.eu). How will your nation fare in this end-time judgment scenario? Are you prepared to stand in the gap?
- 70 years ago: Where was the European church as the Jews of Europe stood on the brink of annihilation? With few heroic exceptions – the majority of the church was more part of the problem, than part of the solution. Where is the church today as Israel is again threatened by annihilation?
- And most importantly, God not only loves Israel – he loves all the nations! He wants to bless them! He wants to see them be part of the "sheep" nations – blessed and blossoming in the messianic kingdom and in the age to come (Rev. 22:1-2). What is our mandate from God? What is our role as praying Christian believers and intercessors concerning our nations and Israel in our day and generation – 70 years after the end of the Holocaust?

With these points in mind, we invite praying Christians from around the world to join with us in this very strategic and prophetic GPC-Conference in Jerusalem, Israel, from May 10th to May 13th, 2015:

- To pray blessings over Israel as a priestly representation from our nations.
- To pray for our nations that they may increasingly become a blessing to Israel and the Jewish people.
- To pray for the body of Christ in our own countries to understand God's love for our nations and our Godly mandate and responsibility to pray.
- To meet Holocaust survivors and speak comfort to them.
- To hear testimonies from the nations from the 100 days of prayer (and fasting).
- To meet like-minded Christians from around the world and worship the Lord together.
- To grow in our understanding of the "signs of the times" and the biblical foundations regarding end-time scenarios concerning Israel and the nations.

We invite pastors to come with groups from their churches. We invite intercessory leaders to invite their core group to join. We invite the leaders of Israel-related ministries to join us at the conference. We may possibly add an Israel-tour. With the KESHET travel agency, we have an excellent partner to help you or your local travel agency tailor your travel arrangements to best meet the needs and/or desires of your group.

Please consider this invitation prayerfully! If you have any questions: Please feel free to ask! If the Spirit confirms, please come!
